Counsel for Appellant Scott G. Perry

Appellant, Scott G. Perry (“Rep. Perry”), by and through counsel, hereby submits the following response to the Motion of the Reporter’s Committee for Freedom of the Press (“Reporters Committee”) to Unseal Judicial Records in this case.

The Reporter’s Committee requests that this Court unseal “the orders, briefs, and record in this appeal, subject – at most – to narrowly tailored redactions.” Mot. at 9. It argues that the balance of the six factors in United States v. Hubbard, 650 F.2d 293, 317 (D.C. Cir. 1980), require unsealing: (1) the need for public access to the documents at issue; (2) the extent of previous public access to the documents; (3) the fact that someone has objected to disclosure, and the identity of that person; (4) the strength of any property and privacy interests asserted; (5) the possibility of prejudice to those opposing disclosure; and (6) the purposes for which the documents were introduced during the judicial proceedings.

Rep. Perry acknowledges the First Amendment rights of the Press and the public’s interest in the issues presented in this case. However, the partial unsealing of filings would potentially result in unfair prejudice to Rep. Perry. The release of partially redacted documents, where the redactions withhold pertinent facts, would promote an incomplete understanding of the communications at issue and the Speech or Debate privileges that Rep. Perry has asserted over those records.

Accordingly, Rep. Perry objects to the release of partially redacted documents in this case and the opening of oral argument to the Press and public. He requests that this Court maintain the seal at least until it has an opportunity to consider and resolve the important issues presented by this case.
